

18th Annual Fall Festival Sunday November 23, 2008

Premier Holiday Shopping and Entertainment Tradition

Every November, for nearly two decades, downtown Encinitas has played host to a premier street fair – The Fall Festival. It is a readymade bazaar for holiday shoppers and weekend fun seekers to visit the North San Diego coastal community whose mantra is, “a place to live, work and play!”

This year, on Sunday, November 23, from 9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m., fair-goers will enjoy a day where coastal breezes meets people gathering to shop, eat, be entertained and enjoy the community's Historical district. Over 450 vendor booths showcasing various arts, crafts, gifts, food and more, and 200 shops and 40 restaurants and eateries along the Coast Highway from D to J Streets will be open and ready for business. Live music will be playing at two venues; The Lumberyard Courtyard Stage, located at the Lumberyard Center, Community Stage, close to F Street, both feature the best in local entertainment.

If you are planning to come, here are a few places to park:

City Hall, located on Vulcan Avenue

Moonlight Beach Parking lot, located on Third Street

Coaster Station parking lots at Vulcan & D Street, and Vulcan & E Street

If you have any questions about the fair, please call the DEMA office at 760-943-1950 or email dtucker@encinitas101.com

Vendors who wish to participate can find an application at www.kennedyfares.com.

Presented by

