

The Encinitas Commission for the Arts

Presents

For All Ages!

Encinitas Street Fair Photo Contest

The Encinitas Street Fair Photo Contest is open to all ages, but you must be an Encinitas resident to qualify! We have chosen the Encinitas Song by Ida Lou Coley and Hugh Martin, as the basis for the subject matter (see next page). This song describes many of the wonderful things that make Encinitas a great place to live: our beaches, trails, people and places, just to name a few. Join in the fun, look around our community to find the many special and unique things described in our song.

Below are 20 items, activities or places mentioned in the Encinitas Song. Please note which category your photo depicts, and where it was taken. That's it! The winning photographs will be exhibited at the Encinitas Street Fair, April 24 and 25, 2010 in front of the Downtown Encinitas Mainstreet Association (DEMA) office, 818 Coast Highway 101. Prizes will be awarded courtesy of downtown merchants.

Have fun, be creative, and good luck!!!

Encinitas Song

Music by Hugh Martin

Lyrics by Ida Lou Coley

In my little town, there's the sound of the sea.
There is bougainvillea and pink camellia and star pine tree.

There's plenty of sun and plenty of fun,
As surfers ride on the foaming tide,
Frisbees fly in the sunset sky,
Joggers run in the noonday sun,
Bicycles race from place to place.

In my little town, there's the hum of the bee,
For it's filled with flowers and carefree hours – serenity . . . (echo) serenity.

Unpretentious, genu-wine folks,
Palms and pines and little live oaks.

Encinitas . . . (echo) Encinitas,
Come and see us . . . (echo) Come and see us.

San Elijo . . . (echo) San Elijo,
Batiquitos . . . (echo) Batiquitos.

Where life is glowing, and love is growing,
For smiling and beguiling Encinitas.

Come and see us.
Encinitas, C.A.
